LIVING SPRINGS STATION.

40 MILES FROM DENVER CITY, COL.,

July 27, 1867. A party of men, numbering 59, in charge of A party of lines, numbered to two trains, belonging to Thompson & Mervin and Mr. Carlisle, which left Salina, a small settlement on the Smoky Hill route, has arrived safely at the base of the Rocky Mountains. They left Salina the 5th of June, and meeting with anything of special importance as far as Castle Rock. Immediately after camping on the 24th of Castle Rock. Immediately after camping on the 24th of June, a small band of Indians made a dash and killed one man, who was out a short distance from the train. The man killed was Henry Lewis of Zanesville, Ohio. On their arrival at Poud Creck two days after, the rear of the long train, consisting of 44 wagons, was attacked by a small band of redskins, and a wagon and three teams captured. The signal was given, and the train was corraled preparatory to recapturing the property. Shots were freely exchanged, but no one was known to be hurt. On the morning of July-1, while the train was moving, they were attacked on all sides by a large force. For two heurs they fought desperately, because sorely pressed, and, as the train was in column, the Indians had the advantage. They managed, however, even while the Indians charged with fierce yells, to bring their train so as to form four columns. For four hours the fighting was kept up, the Indians showing unusual determination and a great deal with fierce yells, to bring their train so as to form four olumns. For four hours the fighting was kept up, the adians showing unusual determination and a great deal furthed in their various attacks during the six hours. So the six hours are to clock two coaches appeared fighting he Indians, when the besieged train party allied out from their defensive position and made a furious onsiaught upon them. The Indians hen retreated. It is supposed that there were sone 20 adians kefied or desperately wounded, as they were yone away by young Indians who hovered in the rear of year away by young Indians who hovered in the rear of year away by young Indians who hovered in the rear of year attacking party. One of the party with the coaches was flied, and about five train men slightly wounded. There ere from 130 to 200 Indians ongaged in the attack. Since at day they have not been builts to be the Indians, but as they have not been builts for so were following em, watching an opportunity for another attack. Since ye had ocular proof that their fors were following em, watching an opportunity for another attack. Since servation, for the purpose of ascertaining the truth of existement conserning the Osage Indians. The Adtant-General of that state states he knows a man from cir country who confirms the report that the Osages ere on the warpath. The agent of these Indians, Mr. ow of Baldwin City, denies that they entertain hostile stings against the whites.

On the 20th of June, it was decemed necessary by the minander at Fort Sedgwick to dispatch a courier with portain dispatches from Gen. Sherman to Gen. Custer, to was then camped at the forks of the Republican, 1,060 less directly south of Fort Sedgwick. Lieut Lyman dder, 2d Cavalry, was selected to take the dispatch in picked men and a guide, all well mounted, were deled to accompany him. His orders from Gen. Potter re to "follow Major Ellott's trail," wao had only one 's start of him, and if Gen. Custer had moved camp.

When Custer left his camp, and took up his line of march, these different bands, numbering in sil 1,60s, hung on his rear and flanks, picking up stragglers and small parties. It was into this overwhelming force of Indians, that Lieut Kidder, with his livid tired band, pressing forward to obey orders, must have ridden. The result proves it true, they were all found murdered and mutilated in the most shocking manner.

Lieut. Kidder was a young man, and had served through the war in a Minnesota regiment; also, in two Indian campaigns under Gen. Sully. He was a sen of Judge Kidder of Dakota Territory.

From the fact that Capt. Mix had returned from a long scout in that country with 40 men, and from Major Elliott's coming in with 10 men, Gen. Potter thought it pradent to send those dispatches with 12 men.

On the 20th inst., 30 Indians attacked Elk Mountain Station and ran off three horses. Two Indians were wounded

Hon and ran off three horses. Two Indians were wounded by telegraph operators. On the 22d a coach was chased into Rock Creek Station by a band of 60 Indians. On the 21st 180 Indians appeared at Laclede Station but did no damage. They retraced their steps and burned Big Pond Station. On the 23d P. T. Brown of the U. P. R. R. Engle peer party was wounded by the Indians. He died of the arrow wound next morning at Laclede. On the 23d Mr. Lawrence, a miner, was also killed by Indians near South Pass.

At the Franciscan churches in Sullivan-st, and Thirty-first-st., religious services were held yesterday in celebration of the great indulgence of the Portiuncula. This indulgence was granted by Christ to St. Francis, the founder of the Franciscan order of priests, and subsequently by the popes to all Eranciscan churches. It is what Catholies call a plenary indulgence, and is received by all the faithful, who from sunset of the 1st of August to sunset of the ensuing day visit a Franciscan church for prayer. In Catholie countries the churches are kept open during the 2s hours, but in this city they were closed at 12 o'clock on Thursday night, and opened again at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. During all of yesterday until sunset, the churches were at times thronged by persons conforming to this ancient religious custom. In the morning, masses were celebrated and communion administered to large numbers, confessions having been heard by the priests for three days previous. The altar in each church was decorated as on feast-days. At the Franciscan churches in Sullivan-st.

Erie after touching 73 rallied, but soon broke again, and amid the greatest excitement dropped to 60%. The cause of this decline was stated upon the street to be the resignation of "a leading director," whose value to the Company seems to be differently appreciated by the public than by the party expecting to displace him at the next election. The resignation of Mr. Keep appears to have a similar effect upon New-York Central, which is fast moving downward. Whatever might be the effect of the resignation of the leading Eric director in the future, time alone must show. So far as the past is concerned, it is a matter of history that without him the Company would have often been in the hands of the Sheriff. The rest of the market sympathized with Erie, but the decline in the general list was less marked. The last quotations were as follows: New-York Central, 1031@1031; Erie, 691@691; Reading, 105 bid; Michigan Southern, 781@781; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 921@921; Rock Island, 991@991; North-Western, 451 @451; North-Western Preferred, 681 @681; Fort

Late in the day there was a good demand for 6 per cent money. The Bank Statement shows an expansion of loans of $4,000,000, an increase of $600,000 in deposits, a gain of $600,000 in legal-tenders, and a loss of $2,200,000 in coin. The Statement is not one upon which borrow-better it will be for his reputation and the country a large. Every debt statement from this date should show four millions of plain legal tender less, and his only aim should be to get currency debt into gold bearing and to reduce the legal tender trash, by canceling full four millions per month. What the country wants now is a money market, stringent enough to set in motion the crops, from the producer to the consumer, without allowing them to halt at Chicago or New-York, and kept from market by speculators, aided by bank credits. A pressure for money sufficient to make producers promptly pay their debta from sales of their crops, and procure more supplies in the same way, would be a national blessing, and advance the prosperity of the people far more than the existing policy, which paralyzes all disposition to make long engagements in mining, mannfactures, and real estate. Time presses, and if the Secretary does not intend to be known in history as " the great financial guide board," he will at once take energetic steps on the road to which he so long idly pointed, and which does lead to solvency and permanent wealth. The war between the four trunk roads continues and the compact of which Mr. Samuel Sloan was the umpire, may be regarded as dead. It is charged by the Erie that under it they have, been as badly treated as when each road attempted to get the advantage by special contracts. Fares and freights are now unremunerative, but no surprise need be felt if in a few days the fare by rail is not down to $5 to Buffalo. The People's Line of Steamers is taking large numbers of passengers and the Erie business is brought where it must run empty through trains, or take passengers at rates where more than a dollar is spent to earn a dollar.

In freights, business in all directions is extremely limited; rates are nominally unchanged; the only engagement we learn of is 7,500 bush. Corn to Liverpool, by sail, at 3id.

tire land grants, and when, in his judgment, the enraining will, without counting land sales, pay the interest on the whole issue of bench, and give the steet over eight pureant per annum. Our Board have the greatest confidence in the hast sales not only paying the interest, but in their retiring the whole morgage is from eight to ten years, and, in this case, the company will own the obligation of the Trust Company for four millions of dellars, which will go to beneat the steckholders and practically reduce the share capital a large amount; and the land sales, after that time, will go to swell the dividends. It is prove true that our land sales will pay our interest, and that our entire net earnings fall span our stock, which is not insymbered by the principal of a heavy debt, does any one suppose that our shares will not approximate to those of the Illinois Central? Our line is a portion of the Great Western Trank, and it is similar in character and basiness to the Hudson River Road, and is about the same length.

Parties understanding Western swamp lands, and particularly those of Minneada—a State that turns her attention to grain, and in consequence the bay capp is most valuable—know that they are more valuable than lands granted in alternate sections along the line of a rain-capt. This company selects their grant from flow millions of aeres, and every selection will be first-class bay lands, every are of which is and with the capacition of the province of the principal control (now United States Senator). Ramsay, in a letter to us, states that these swamp lands are far more valoable than those of any other class in the rate; and are, owing the the reas of the climat, the order at interest. Knowing that the steps taken to protect the bondbolders are atterly be-seen take our last bond, conclusion, I can only recommend our bonds to investors. There are like them in the market, and, by the terms of our trust deed, when land sales reach all months' interest in advance on the bonds any surthereafter has to be used in buying our bonds at 115 per cent and used interest, or order. Hence, our bondholders not only receive a accrued interest, or under. Hence, our bondholders not only receive a good rate of interest, but they have a certainty of increasing their juvestment about 25 per cent; for who will sell our honds except at a handsome premium when they have such an arbitrary purchaser in the narket!

To verify our Engineer's estimate, the friends of the Chicago and North-Western Company calculate that our line will swell the North-Western's receipts to twenty millions per annum.

We have notified the contractors to commence work, and our road will be pushed sheadily forward to completion.

President of the St. Paul and Chicago Railway Company.

Prish —There is a fair inquiry for Day Cod at 45 62,4267; Pickled do. at 46 50, and Pickled Scale at 46 60748. Mackrei at 200,250 56 for No. 1 Massachusetts Shore, 418:4618 60 for do. Eny, and 80 75 for No. 3 Bay.

GRAIN—Since this day week we have had more liberal arrivals of Wheat, and with highly favorable weather at the West for harvesting and maturing the crop of Spring Wheat, prices have declined materially, with considerable irregularity in the prices of New, but 01d Spring has steadily declined, though Rejected and No. 3 have been in fair demand for export, and have been better sustained than No. 2; but we have no stock of Sound Spring here. Our stock of White Wheat is much reduced, and for this good prices have been maintained. The New Southern White, received since our last, has proved to be very inferior, and it is difficult of sale. The fact is, this crop is everywhere short, at the North and West it is very good, though the yield is light. From the North-West we have had favorable reports since our last; the weather has been good for the harvest, which is now quite general, and should they have a continuance of the present fair weather for a fortulight, we may safely boast of having secured the finest and largest crop of Spring Wheat ever produced; but so much depends upon the weather that it is uscless now to express any opinion. From Chicago we learn contracts for No. 2 Spring have been made to some extent for early September delivery at $1.50. This certainly shows great confidence in low prices, and we trust these expectations may be realized. Our advices from Canada are favorable, a d $1 a $1 ca for Kilu-Dried. LEATHER—There has been so particular change in the market for Hemlock Sole since our last. Early in the week a good inquiry prevailed. Sussequently the demand abated, closing quiet. In view of the continued high prices for Hides, and the comparatively small steck of Leather in the market, holders are firm, particularly for prime steck. For lower grades slight concessions have been made. Oak Sele has ruied quiet, but prices are without change. Rough is active; light weights continue scarce and are wanted. We quote as follows: Oak Slaughter and Salted—Good Light, assate; Middle, Sagec; Heavy, 40246c; jlght Cropped, 44247c; middle do, 4725c; Heavy, 40246c; Heavy, 502482c. MOLASSES—At about former rates, there is a fair inquiry from refiners and the trade; sales of 380 libds, 40 tes. Sagua at 18251c., 50 libds. Demerara at 50c., and 409 labds. Trinidad P. S. on private terms.

METALS—American diagot) Copper has been in active demand; all kinds have ruled firm, and show an advance; manufactured remains quiet at full prices. Pig Iron has been in active request, in part for forward delivery; prices have slightly improved; the supply of American on the market is small, and holders are firm in their views. We learn of no change in Pig Lead, the business being limited. Shot and Spelter are unchanged. Pig Tin has been only in moderate demand, but prices are well sustained. We quote:

SKINS—In Goat there has been rather more doing, and sales of Mexican embrace about 225 bales at 46424c., gold. In other descriptions there has also been a moderate business doing, but at slightly reduced rates. The stock is still large and well assorted. Deer are in moderate request, but at prices below the views of imporiers; sales have been unimportant and at irregular prices, though within the range of the americal figures.
